There is no road into the cemetery as burials were discontinued there. It is badly neglected but the grass is cut several times during the summer by men living near.

The cemetery is in Clark Co., Ind. just over the Floyd County line.

July 19, 1968 Dr. J. M. Johnson
University of Michigan
Ann Arbor, Michigan 48106

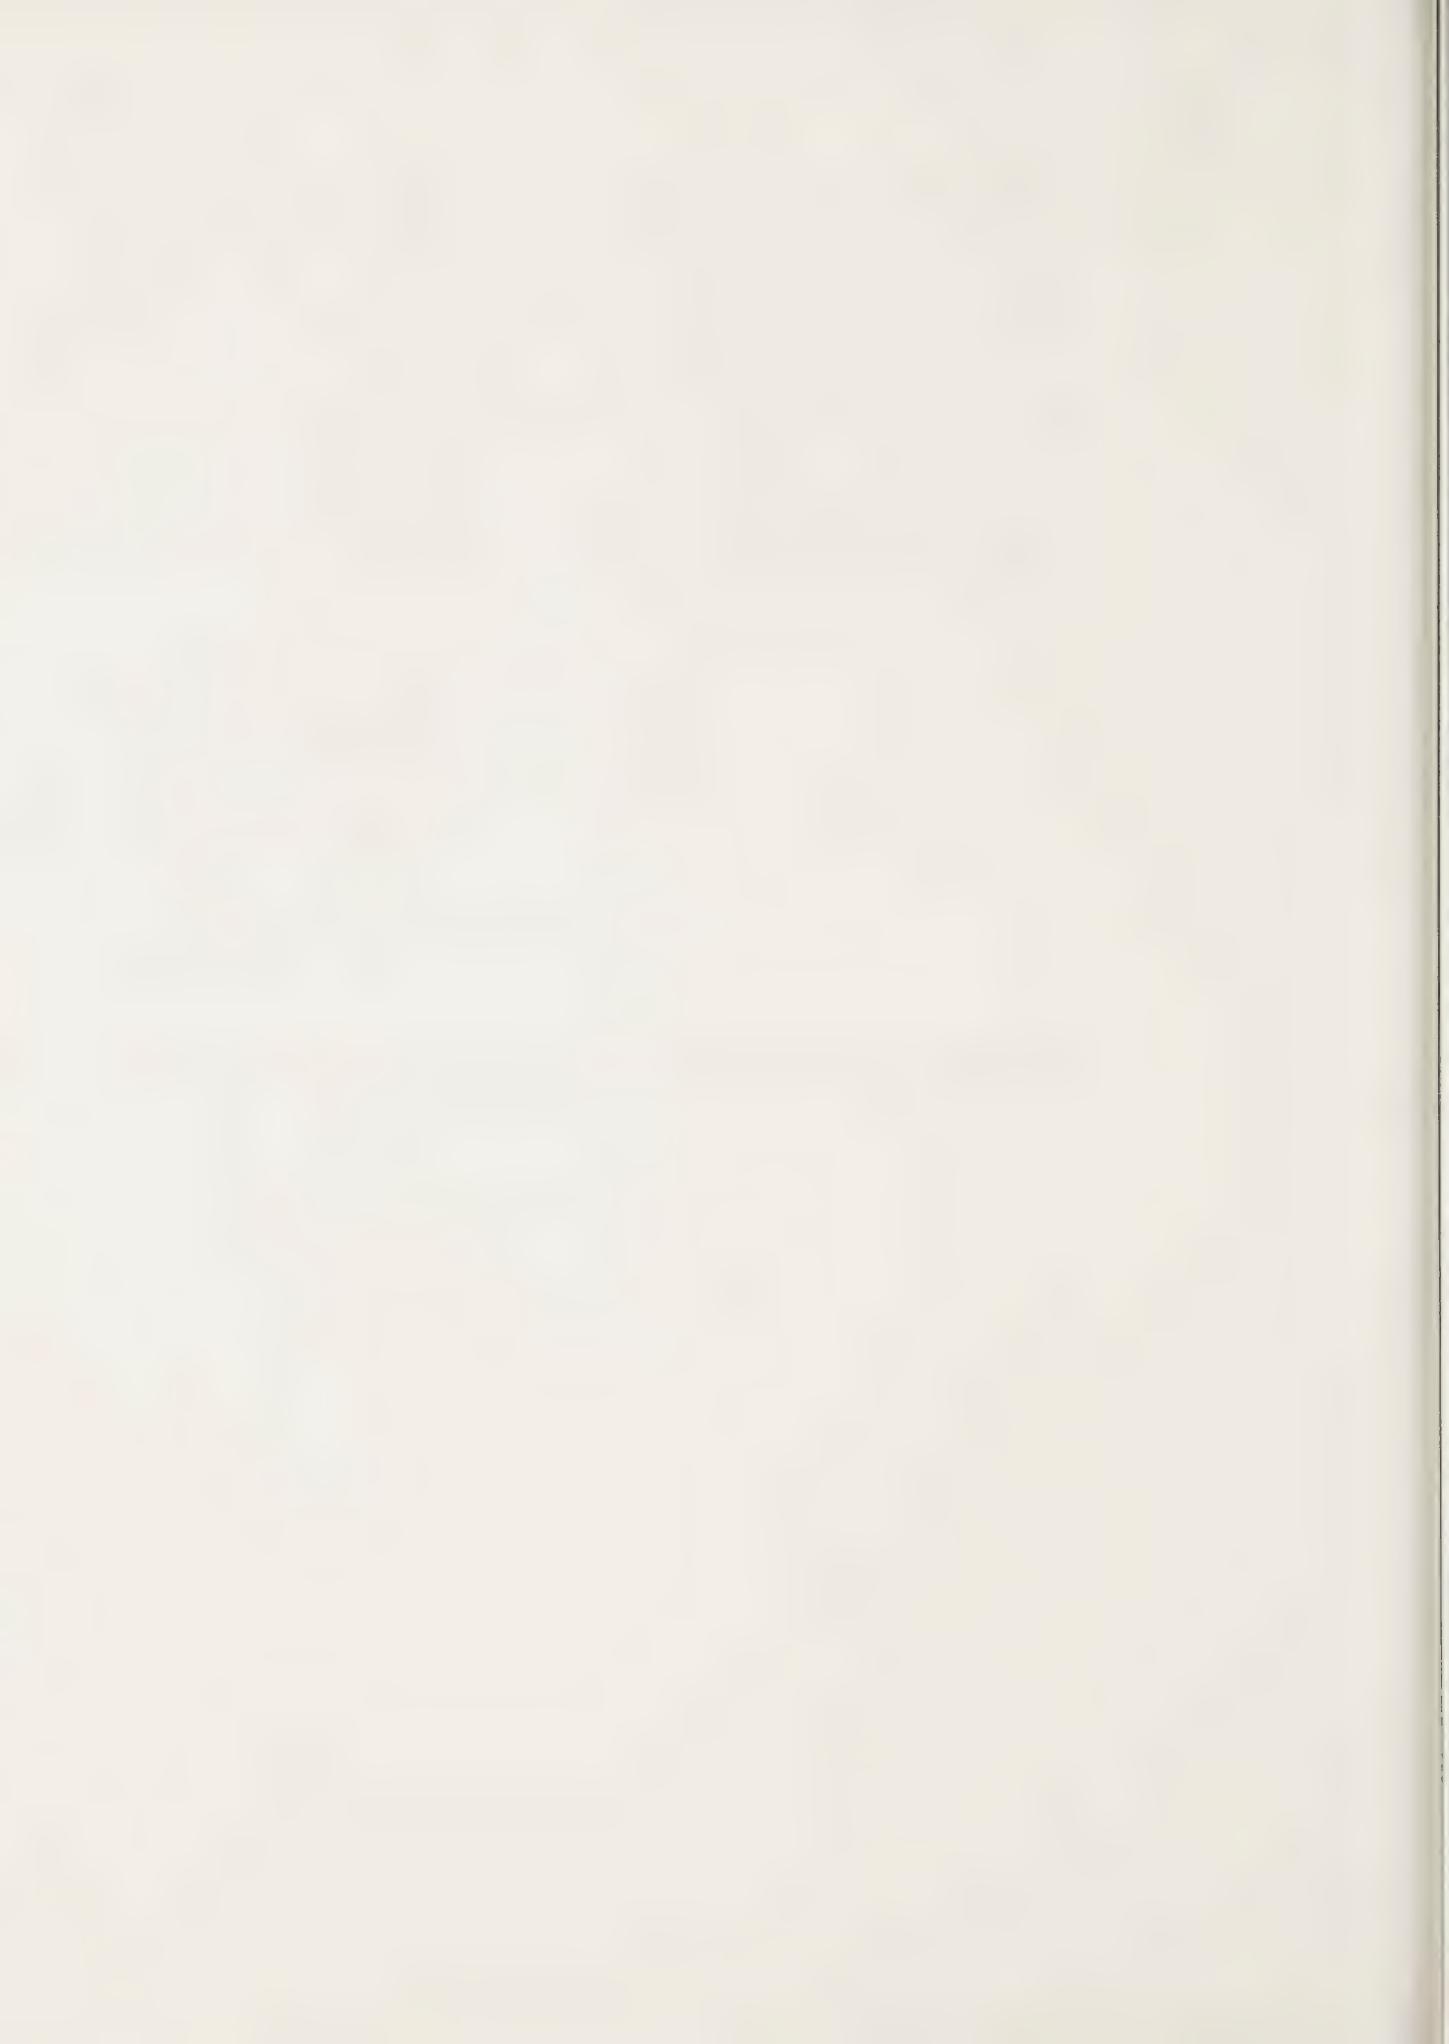

before me the undersigned the recorder of the county of Floyd in the State of Indiana this day personally appeared before me Robert Lafollett and Martha his wife Grantors to the foregoing deed of conveyance and acknowledged that they had signed, sealed, and delivered the same as and for their proper act and deed for the purpose therein specified; and Martha, the wife of the said Robert, being by me examined separate and apart from her said husband and having said deed fully explained to her, declared that she voluntary and of her own free will and accord sealed and delivered the same as and for her proper act and deed without coercion or compulsion from her husband.

In testimony whereof I have therupon set my hand and affixed the seal of my said office at New Albany the 4th day of November 1807.

William Hardin, R.P.C.

The above Deed was copied by Carrie Lafollett, (Mrs. William), 626 Maple Lane, New Albany, Ind.

HOPE HIGH SCHOOL

Baptism.

Located in Franklin Township, Floyd County, Indiana.

The cemetery and lot church was there before 1837 when the Deed was recorded. Little Phebe Lafollette was buried there in 1817.

The old log church with its hugh logs, was standing as late as 1829 or early 1930 when I visited the cemetery. It was boing used and in seemingly good condition then. It was destroyed by fire of unknown origin. The remarks in parentheses are my own comment. They may give you a closer acquaintance with those poor dear saints who through their sacrifices, improved this rugged land and left a culture - a Christian one, for our generation.
